FREE FMX/BMX SHOW TO OPEN KENTUCKY STATE FAIR In Freedom Hall

LOUISVILLE, KY (August 14, 2015) – With the cancellation of the Kentucky State Fair’s opening concert, fair officials quickly booked the Action XTREME Sport Show to fill Freedom Hall on the fair’s opening night. The show is for all ages and combines choreographed stunts in the air and on the ground.

Freestyle and bicycle motocross riders appearing will include five-time X Games medalist Morgan Wade and BMX Hall of Famer Woody Itson, the show’s producer. Skateboarding veteran Chris Gentry will also perform.

Action EXTREME Sport Show is a free event with paid admission to the Fair.

The 2015 Kentucky State Fair is August 20-30 at the Kentucky Exposition Center. Parking at the Kentucky Exposition Center is $8. For More information, visit www.kystatefair.org or follow us on Facebook and Twitter.

ABOUT THE KENTUCKY STATE FAIR

The Kentucky State Fair is an 11-day celebration of the history, heritage and culture of the Bluegrass State. More than 600,000 attend America’s largest indoor fair, which uses over 1.2 million square feet of contiguous exhibit space at the Kentucky Exposition Center. While its roots are in agriculture, the Kentucky State Fair has grown into a trade and public education exposition, as well as a major entertainment venue. The World’s Championship Horse Show, held during the Fair, is the world’s richest and most prestigious Saddlebred show. Attendees and exhibitors contribute over $15.3 million annually in economic impact. The Kentucky State Fair & World’s Championship Horse Show are owned and produced by the Kentucky State Fair Board, an agency of the Kentucky Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet.
